Itinerary

Day 1: Budapest, Hungary

On arrival in Budapest, transfer to the Four Seasons Hotel Gresham Palace for a two-night stay. Enjoy a welcome reception dinner and meet fellow travelers in the elegant surrounds of this art nouveau landmark, with its panoramic views across the River Danube.

Day 2: Budapest, Hungary

Budapest is actually two cities separated by the Danube. The old city of Buda and the imposing Royal Palace, dominates the city with stunning views across the Danube to the commercial heart of Pest. The city tour includes a visit to the Royal Palace, St. Mathias Church and a panoramic view of the city from Gellert Hill, as well as the Citadel, the Opera House, and St. Stephen's Cathedral.

The rest of the day is at leisure. Stroll along the banks of the Danube, visit the historic Great Market Hall with its endless variety of delicious foods and wines or head to one of the city's famous thermal baths for a rejuvenating dip. Alternatively, relax at the hotel and indulge in the hotel's luxurious spa.

Day 3: Budapest & Keszthely

Following breakfast at the hotel, transfer to Budapest Nyugati station to enjoy a morning drinks reception in the impressive Royal Waiting Room before boarding the Golden Eagle Danube Express.

A brass band strikes up as the Golden Eagle Danube Express slowly draws into the adjacent platform. The uniformed train staff will then escort you to your cabin. Settle in as the train threads its way out of Nyugati station and through the Budapest suburbs to the Great Hungarian Plain and Lake Balaton. Lunch will be served as the train runs along the Lake's South shore, a major Hungarian holiday resort area.

After a leisurely lunch, arrive at the far end of the lake in Keszthely. Enjoy a short tour of the town and a private cruise on the lake.

Arrive back on board for dinner in the restaurant car, as the train journeys north along the shore on the more rugged side of the lake. After dinner, perhaps visit the bar car for a nightcap and listen to the pianist before retiring as the 1,000 mile journey continues towards Prague.

Day 4: Kosice & Poprad

Breakfast is served as the train heads into Slovakia before stopping in Kosice, a city dating back to the 13th century. Take the morning to visit the Historical Centre and the St. Elisabeth Cathedral, Slovakia's largest church.

Lunch is served on board as the trip continues towards the High Tatras, running through the area capital of Poprad-Tatry to Strba. Depart the Golden Eagle Danube Express to join the Tatra Rack & Scenic (Narrow gauge) Railway, which climbs 1,457 feet into the mountains (444m) in just 3 miles (5 km). Change to a second train for a scenic journey to Poprad-Tatry.

After a tour of the town, rejoin the Golden Eagle Danube Express for dinner onboard. Settle in and relax as the train journeys toward Poland, arriving around midnight.

Day 5: Krakow

Enjoy an early breakfast onboard before arriving in Oswiecim, station for Auschwitz, where you will spend the morning.

Lunch is served on the way to the Wieliczka Salt Mines, which includes a visit to the spectacular underground Salt Cathedral.

Tour the lovely city of Krakow in the late afternoon / early evening. Once a royal capital with an extraordinary history, and now a lively university town with fashionable bars and restaurants, Krakow is a fascinating UNESCO World Heritage site city with beautiful monuments and an exuberant atmosphere.

After a long but rewarding day, return to the Golden Eagle Danube Express for a farewell dinner.

The bar car remains open until the last person retires to their cabin. Around midnight the train enters the Czech Republic.

Day 6: Prague

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast aboard the train as it arrives into Prague's Hlavni station. The train staff will help you detrain as they bid you farewell on the platform.

Take a tour of the Old Town Square, with its many historic buildings and Astronomical Clock, the historic 14th century Charles Bridge and the Jewish Quarter. Take a vintage tram ride through the city up the hill to Prague Castle and the gothic St. Vitus Cathedral.

Lunch will be served overlooking the architectural treasures of this 'City of a Hundred Spires'. In the afternoon, take a relaxing cruise up the Vltava river by private boat with cocktails onboard. Enjoy an overnight stay at the Four Seasons Hotel Prague (or similar).

Day 7: Prague

Following breakfast at the hotel, transfer to the airport for your flight home — or extend your stay in Prague for additional nights to explore more of this fascinating city.
