The Tour

NEW for 2025! The train will introduce two new Grand Suites (bringing the total of Grand Suites to four) and will no longer have dedicated single cabins. Single travelers will still be able to book a cabin for sole occupancy.

Join respected British gardening writer Sue Chivers and photographer Patsy Floyd on a memorable rail journey around some of Scotland's finest country homes and gardens. Enjoy personal tours given by members of the family, as well as welcome drinks in their homes and walks through their beautiful gardens.

Itinerary

Day 1: Edinburgh-Keith

You are welcomed aboard the Belmond Royal Scotsman mid-afternoon. The train departs Edinburgh and travels north across the splendid Forth Railway Bridge. Disembark in Montrose to visit Pitmuies Garden — one of the finest private parks in the country. Rejoin the train in Stonehaven and continue up the east coast through Aberdeen and then into Speyside, stopping in Keith for an informal dinner and overnight stabling.

Day 2: Keith-Kyle of Lochalsh

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast as the train departs Keith and travels west towards Inverness and Invergordon, where you will disembark for a visit to Foulis Castle. This 18th-century castle is built on the site of the seat of the Clan Munro for 700 years and is still occupied by the family. And who better to tell the history of their wonderful home and clan than Mrs. Munro of Foulis and her son, Hector, the Clan Chief. After their welcome, wander around the castle's grounds and tour Mrs. Munro's delightful courtyard garden. Alternatively, join Hector in the drawing room for a whisky tasting.

Back on board, lunch will be served and you travel towards Kyle of Lochalsh on what is arguably the most scenic route in Britain - past the Torridon Mountains, Achnashellach forest and Loch Carron. At Plockton, disembark for a visit to Attadale on the west coast. This massive 30,000-acre estate boasts a Water Garden, Japanese Garden, and Sunken Garden among other treasures. You return to the train in Kyle of Lochalsh for overnight stabling. A lavish dinner is followed by entertainment in the Observation Car.

Day 3: Kyle of Lochalsh-Boat of Garten

Disembark after breakfast to drive across to the Isle of Skye and the 20,000- acre Clan Donald estate on the Sleat peninsula. You can also spend time in the award-winning museum and discover the history of the Highlands and Islands through the story of Clan Donald or the MacDonalds, the Lords of the Isles.

Return to the train in Kyle of Lochalsh and enjoy a leisurely lunch as you retrace part of yesterday’s route as far as Dingwall. The train continues south to Carrbridge where you disembark for your visit to Ballindalloch, one of Scotland’s most romantic castles, with wonderful walled gardens. Return to the train at Boat of Garten on the private Strathspey Railway for overnight stabling. Enjoy dinner followed by a nightcap in the Observation Car.

Day 4: Boat of Garten-Dundee

After breakfast, motorcoach to Rothiemurchus Estate, where you can tour the hunting lodge and parkland, or enjoy some of the outdoor activities at this beautiful site beneath the Cairngorm Mountains.

Lunch is served on return to the train in Kingussie. The journey then proceeds south onto Dunblane, where you disembark for a late afternoon visit to your final garden on the itinerary, Kilbryde Castle and Gardens. Return to the train in Dundee for your final night on board and a formal dinner and after-dinner entertainment in the Observation Car before stabling overnight.

Day 5: Dundee-Edinburgh

After breakfast, the train arrives into Edinburgh Waverley Station where your journey ends.
