The Tour

Board the stylish Venice Simplon-Orient-Express in Paris or Geneva for the overnight journey to Innsbruck. Disembark here or continue to Venice for an evening arrival.

Enjoy the beautiful scenery of the Alps while being pampered aboard one of the world's most famous trains.

Itinerary

Day 1: Paris-Geneva

Board the legendary Venice Simplon-Orient-Express in Paris mid-afternoon. Settle into your comfortable private cabin and soak up the views as you sample indulgent pastries with tea and coffee, served by your steward.

Sit down to a lavish four-course dinner, prepared on board by our expert team of chefs. As you dine, soothing classic tunes from the resident pianist will delight your senses.

Later, retire to your cabin, now transformed into a cozy bedroom.

(Optional to board in Geneva rather than Paris. Note for those boarding in Geneva: Departure is about 10 p.m. with dinner served immediately after. Arrive dressed for dinner.)

Day 2: Arrive Innsbruck or Venice

Your steward serves Continental breakfast in your cabin as you gaze out at beautiful peaks, undulating meadows, and crystal-clear lakes. Before you leave the train, perhaps browse the onboard boutique for an exclusive memento of your journey.

Disembark in Innsbruck around noon.

Or, for those continuing to Venice, enjoy a lavish three-course lunch served in the restaurant cars. Later, while away the afternoon in your cabin with high tea as the train crosses the Venetian Lagoon, onwards towards Santa Lucia station for arrival around 7 p.m.
