As morning approaches, the views of the Tuscan countryside come into view. A stop in Siena will allow you to explore this historic city at your leisure. Or, join one of three optional tours. Rejoin the train and arrive Rome in the evening.

This beautiful journey through Italy is sure to be filled with beauty and lasting memories.

Itinerary

Day 1: Venice

Your journey begins with a private transfer by water taxi to the Venezia Santa Lucia Station from your Venice hotel. Here, you will board La Dolce Vita Orient Express and settle into your cabin as the night falls over Venice.

Enjoy dinner, which has been carefully crafted by Chef Heinz Beck, as you mingle with your fellow travelers. Later, relax in the lounge with live music and drinks as your journey continues towards Tuscany.

Overnight on the train.

Day 2: Siena – Rome

Wake up to a delicious breakfast, either served in your cabin or in the Restaurant Car (your preference), and enjoy the breathtaking views as the train arrives in Tuscany.

Disembark in Siena and spend the day at your leisure exploring this charming Tuscan gem. Several optional tours are available, such as a visit to an ancient palazzo followed by a medieval gold-leaf painting demonstration.

Rejoin the train in the afternoon as you continue onto Rome, where you will come to your journey's end this evening.

Dates & Prices

More

The train journey includes a private transfer to the train station, where you will be escorted to the fabulous private La Dolce Vita lounge. Your bags are whisked away to be stowed in your cabin on the train before you board.

We recommend the Orient Express La Minerva Hotel in Rome, the perfect match for the train, and just 10 minutes from the station. This stylish new hotel, the first in the Orient Express brand, is located in the heart of Rome on a quiet piazza but just steps from the Parthenon.
