The Tour

NEW for 2025! The train will introduce two new Grand Suites (bringing the total of Grand Suites to four) and will no longer have dedicated single cabins. Single travelers will still be able to book a cabin for sole occupancy.

Belmond Royal Scotsman's Western Scenic Wonders Tour runs on Scotland's West Highland Line, one of the world's most scenic rail journeys. The luxurious, private train passes through gorgeous glens, lochs and mountains, steeped in the lore of Bonnie Prince Charlie.

Itinerary

Day 1: Edinburgh-Spean Bridge

The Belmond Royal Scotsman departs Edinburgh early afternoon and heads west through Falkirk before reaching Craigendoran—the starting point for the majestic West Highland Line.

Enjoy afternoon tea as you travel along the edge of Gare Loch. Loch Long comes into sight to your left and, after vanishing for a while, returns with a view of Ben Arthur. Passing Arrochar, you gain your first glimpse of Loch Lomond, Britain's largest lake. The train descends almost to the water's edge at Ardlui before embarking on a hard climb up Glen Falloch, whose many waterfalls provide an impressive display.

Continuing north, the train passes through the villages of Crianlarich and the Bridge of Orchy, then on to boggy and beautiful Rannoch Moor, one of the last great wildernesses of Scotland.

A splendid dinner is served on the way to Spean Bridge, after which you are invited to the Observation Car to enjoy lively entertainment by local musicians.

Day 2: Spean Bridge-Bridge of Orchy

Breakfast is served as the train continues west, passing through Fort William with views of Ben Nevis (Britain's highest mountain). Travel along the stunning coastline and disembark at Arisaig for a romantic walk along the Morar Sands, with views of the Isle of Skye and Cuillin Mountains.

Lunch is served as the train retraces its steps back to Fort William. Then, our local guide dives into the Glenfinnan Monument's history, before drinks and some light bites in the traditional cozy bar of The Old Station Restaurant, located at Spean Bridge Railway Station. Energetic guests can choose to walk to beautiful Steall Waterfall (we loved this choice!), the second highest in the UK.

Return to the train at Fort William. Dinner is served as the train travels south toward the tiny Argyll village of Bridge of Orchy. Enjoy a nightcap and entertainment in the observation car.

Day 3: Bridge of Orchy-Wemyss Bay-Kilmarnock

Breakfast on board while traveling south. At Wemyss Bay, board the ferry to the Isle of Bute. View seashore, moorland, farmland and forest—and visit Mount Stuart, Britain's most spectacular Victorian Gothic house. The home has a fine private collection of family portraits, as well as wonderful gardens and a secluded beach to explore. (We loved the hike through the woods – a quite vigorous and gorgeous walk.)

Return to the train for formal dinner while on the move to Kilmarnock, the stabling location for the evening.

Day 4: Kilmarnock-Edinburgh

After an early departure from Kilmarnock this morning, enjoy a leisurely breakfast as you travel east towards Edinburgh Waverley Station, your journey's end.
